“In the life of a young Dominican girl, her Quinceañera (15th birthday) is one of the most important days that she'll experience.
Our Program

While the dress and party are essential to the day, it's the heart and spiritual development of the girl that matters most. All Princess Project participants go through a multi-class program; which teaches Biblical womanhood and healthy maturity. Workbooks are provided for this class.

A DAY TO REMEMBER

Project Mañana provides a dress, accessories and a tiara to each "princess". In partnership with the family, Project Mañana also provides the venue, cake and photography. All the essentials for a Quinceañera to remember!

DONATIONS NEEDED

Without the donated supply of dresses, accessories and financial support, this project would not be possible.

About Princess Project

The Quinceañera is a “coming-of-age” celebration where the birthday girl adorns herself with an elegant dress, accessories, and a tiara. In other words, it’s her day to be a princess!

Sadly, for most of the girls living in the communities where Project Mañana serves, a lack of resources means that most of them will never get to enjoy this very special celebration. Not only does this create a lifetime void in their childhood, it’s highly detrimental to their self-esteem and community acceptance.
