

7-Point Child Development Plan

Score	Body		Mind		Soul
	Physical Health	Sexual Health & Purity	Education	Talent Development	Spiritual Development	Identity & Roles	Servant's Heart
5	Child is eating 3 meals per day. Has a balanced diet. Has a healthy appearance (no signs of malnutrition). Does not have parasites	Child is not engaged in sexual activity and has expressed desire to remain pure until marriage	Child is an outstanding student in all his/her school subjects	Child has successfully developed talents, uses them, and teaches others	Child has placed faith in Jesus for salvation and is living a life of worship and service to the Lord with other believers	Child has graduated from PM's Character Counts Program and is walking in his/her God given identity	Child understands that Jesus is the Servant King and reflects that with his/her life
4	Child is eating 3 meals per day. Has a healthy appearance (no signs of malnutrition). Does not have parasites	Child is not engaged in sexual activity, and shows no signs of interest in becoming sexual active	Child can handle his school subjects with relative ease	Child has successfully developed talents	Child shows signs of understanding the Gospel and who God is but is in need of discipleship and maturity	Child shows interest in embracing their God given manhood/womanhood role	Child is showing signs of wanting to serve outside of Project Mañana's events
3	Child is eating 2 meals per day. Has a semi-healthy appearance (no signs of malnutrition). Does not have parasites	Child engaged in sexual activity in the past, but is not currently active	Child can read and write	Child is in the process of developing talents	Child has heard the Gospel & has received instruction from the Scriptures	Child has heard clear explanations of Biblical manhood/womanhood	Child regularly participates in Project Mañana's Serving with Love events
2	Child eats only 1 meal per day. May be infected with parasites. May display signs of malnutrition	Child is occasionally engaged in sexual activity and is at a moderate risk of pregnancy and/or STDs	Child has begun the literacy process	Child has identified talents but does not have resources to develop them	Child knows God's name	Child has traditional cultural understanding of manhood/womanhood	Child understands what volunteer service means and has been instructed in ways they can serve
1	Child has poor nutrition, eating irregularly through the week. Displays signs of malnutrition and/or is infected with parasites	Child is frequently engaged in sexual activity and is at a high risk of pregnancy and/or STDs	Child is illiterate	Child has not identified talents	Child has no knowledge of God and does not understand who He is	Child has no knowledge of what a man/woman is and their roles apart from physical attributes	Child does not know what volunteer service is